

WIFE DESERTERS BROUGHT TO BOOK

Four Who Do Not Take Care of Their Families.

REV. RAMSEY FORMS CHURCH

The Death of John Hewitt Was Caused By Murder to Rob
Him of Money.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., November 6.—The new law is rigidly enforced here against wife deserters. The grand jury to-day returned four indictments against men for wife desertion and failure to provide for the families. The defendants are H. E. Smithwick, G. H. Tweedy, A. O. Woodhouse and James Yates.

The cases have all been set for trial on Wednesday morning of this week.

The rule of the Corporation Court is to compel the deserters to give a bond, to pay a certain amount weekly for the support of their families, or go to jail for a year.

Ramsey's New Church.

Rev. A. J. Ramsey and between thirty and forty of his followers, who withdrew from the Berkeley Avenue Baptist Church, held services yesterday at the St. Paul's chapel on Washington Street. At the morning service they organized a new church to be known as "The Gospel Church," and the following officers were elected for the first term: Rev. A. J. Ramsey, pastor; F. C. Hough, treasurer; L. B. Allen, clerk. The above, with Mr. Elyson Jones were elected on the board of deacons.

Receiver for Hotel.

Following a suit entered by the Etna Iron Works against the Atlantic Building Company which built and runs the Atlantic Hotel here in which the Williams, of Richmond, are interested, there will be a motion for a receiver in the Chancery Court to-morrow. The motion was to be made to-day but was postponed to permit the attendance of the attorney for the company. The wound of the motion is a confession of judgment by C. M. Randolph, to his mother, Mrs. Randolph, for $27,000. There is nothing known to the public concerning the arrangement of the Williams as to the sale of the property, which was negotiated two weeks ago and then intercepted. The Etna Iron Works has a suit for $200.

Killed for Robbery.

Evidence before the coroner's jury concerning the mysterious death of John Hewitt, of South Norfolk, was to the effect that he had been murdered for the money he carried. His wife testified that he had been to a store in the vicinity, and after returning home with money, he went to the barn to put up the horse and buggy. He stayed longer than was necessary, and Mrs. Hewitt and Vernon went out to find him wounded and semi-conscious from a blow in the back of his head with a large stick which was afterward found near the barn door. He died after saying that his head was hurt, that he believed he would die, and that he should make the best of it. His money, about $40, was gone. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the murder.

REFUSE CERTIORARI FOR GAYNOR BONDSMAN

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—The Supreme Court of the United States to-day denied the petition of the United States for a writ of certiorari to bring to that court the case of William D. Kirk, of Syracuse, N. Y., recently decided by the Circuit Court for the Second Circuit in Kirk's favor. The proceeding was begun to recover $10,000 from Kirk, who was a bondsman for John F. Gaynor in that sum, but the Circuit Court held the proceeding to be irregular, and refused to hold Kirk responsible. The United States asked the Supreme Court to bring the case up for review by means of a writ of certiorari. That this court refused to do by to-day's action, but there is still pending a writ of error in the case, both methods having been resorted to by the government to secure consideration by the court of highest authority.

AMBASSADOR STARTS NEW TRADE TREATY

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 6.—Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German ambassador, has called at the State Department and formally initiated negotiations for a new trade treaty between the United States and Germany, submitting the proposition of his own government. Secretary Root has taken the matter under consideration. The plan proposed, based upon original investigation by a joint commission of members from each side, has already been outlined in an interview recently had with the German foreign minister, Prince von Buelow, by an Associated Press correspondent.

Horse Show New York Nov. 13th to 18th

Old Dominion Steamship Company's twelfth annual personally conducted excursion to New York, account of the great Horse Show, will leave Richmond, via Old Dominion Night Line, Friday, November 10th, at 7 P. M., and via Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, Saturday, November 11th, at 4 P. M., or Norfolk and Western Railroad, 3 P. ## Asparagus

Our special offerings for the week include a large shipment of New California Asparagus, which we strongly recommend. It is the finest selected cuttings of tender, young asparagus, and being packed before packing, every particle is edible. A toothsome, nutritious dish, that will add an appetizing completeness to any table.

A new importation of Virgin Olive Oil has just been received. This oil comes from the famous olive district of Europe, and possesses the delightful natural flavor only to be found in the highest grade goods.

TRIAL FOR MUTINY AND MURDER AT SEA

The Defendants Go On Stand and Detail the Crime at Length.

(By Associated Press.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., November 6.—The trial of Robert Sawyer and Arthur Adams, charged with mutiny and murder on the schooner Harry A. Berwind, was accomplish any results, and the Democratic State ticket will most probably have as much as 2,000 majority.

ALL ARE READY FOR THE BATTLE

The complete State tickets being run by the respective parties are as follows:

Democratic Ticket.

For Governor,
CLAUDE A. SWANSON.

For Lieutenant-Governor,
J. TAYLOR ELLYSON.

For Attorney-General,
WILLIAM A. ANDERSON.

For State Superintendent Public Instruction,
J. D. EGGLESTON, JR.

For Secretary of the Commonwealth:
D. Q. EGGLESTON.

For State Treasurer,
A. W. HARMAN, JR.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,
G. W. KOINER.

Republican Ticket.

For Governor,
L. L. LEWIS.

For Lieutenant-Governor,
WM. P. KENT.

For Attorney-General,
GEO. A. RYERCOMB.

For State Treasurer,
JOHN ACKER.

For State Superintendent Public Instruction,
J. N. HARMAN.

For Secretary of the Commonwealth,
V. M. BOWDER.

For Commissioner of Agriculture and Immigration,
WM. H. EGGERTSON.

Of General Importance.

The election to be held to-day not only involves all the State officers, the Legislature, the Supreme Court, the Judiciary, but municipal officers are to be chosen in the cities and Circuit Court clerks in a large number of the counties. In Richmond city all municipal officers will be filled to-day have those of Mayor and Councilmen.

The local ticket here is as follows:

For Senator,
CHARLES J. ANDERSON.

For the House:
HARRY C. GLENN,
EUGENE C. MASSIE,
E. P. COX.

For Auditor,
ODRWAY CULLEN,
R. E. FAYTON, JR.,
For Auditor.

E. J. WARREN,
For City Collector:
F. W. CUNNINGHAM.

For City Sergeant:
JAMES C. SMITH.

For Commonwealth's Attorney:
MINNIE FOLKES.

For Commissioner of the Revenue:
O. A. HAWKINS.

For Clerk Law and Equity Court:
P. P. WINSTON.

For Clerk Hustings Court:
WALTER CHRISTIAN.

For Clerk Chancery Court:
C. O. BAYLLE.

For City Treasurer:
CHARLES H. PHILLIPS.

No Local Opposition.

From the above it will be seen that the ticket will be a long one, but owing to the fact that there is no opposition to the legislative and municipal candidates here, there will not be a great deal of scratching. Therefore the judges having only to count the State ticket will not be greatly handicapped in their work.

Public Interest here extends not only to the elections in Virginia, but in Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania, all of which will be held to-day.

A good deal of local money is up on the majority contest in New York and the odds seemed to be largely with Hearst last night. It is considered a good betting proposition between him and Mayor McClellan, however, and odds have gone on each from time to time.

The Richmond city campaign has been thoroughly worked from a Democratic standpoint, and Chairman Doherty and his colleagues have been untiring in their efforts to get the voters out in to-day's election.

Many Good Speeches.

Daniel, Swanson, Montague, Braxton, Flood, Glass and Sears have made stirring appeals to the voters in the various counties of the State.

KELLEY IN ACCOMAC.

Addresses Large Crowd at the Court-House.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ACCOMAC, C. H., November 6.—The Democrats of Accomac have been very active in the closing hours of the campaign. Mr. Samuel L. Kelley, of Richmond, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here in the afternoon and also spoke at Onancock to-night.

Mr. Kelley stated that he did not believe that the Republican candidate, Judge Lewis, had as much of the respect and praise of fellow-Virginians now as at the beginning of the campaign. He had gained nothing and lost much by accepting the Republican nomination. The speaker aroused many cheers and hurrahs when he spoke of President Roosevelt's advocacy of the old Democratic doctrine of reciprocity and regulation of trusts and railroad rates. He stated he admired the President's words of praise for the Civil War soldiers but would change two words in the sentiment "that next to those who wore the Blue," he most admired those who wore the Gray. "To those who wore the Gray first, and then to those who wore the Blue."

He respected a Republican now and at that time, but hopes he would never live to see the time when old Virginia would have for a Governor a man who had aided in the persecution of the days of reconstruction as Judge Lewis had done.

The speaker closed with an appeal to all voters to come out to the polls on Tuesday and to let Accomac roll up its usual Democratic majority.

Mr. Kelley has made many friends in the party.

He closed with a beautiful peroration and amid the hearty plaudits of the vast crowd of ladies and men present.

This has been a great day for Democracy, and will result in much good for the candidates to be voted for to-morrow.

H. W. Blair, of Wytheville, addressed a small crowd on the court green.

OLD AND NEW GOV. SPEAK IN DANVILLE

Montague and Swanson Given
Ovation By Great Crowd.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., November 6.—The people of Danville had an unusual honor to-night, that of hearing the speeches of the present and what all here believe to be the next Governor of Virginia, Mr. Montague responding to invitation of address and the gathering at the municipal hall at the conclusion of the remarks of Congressman Swanson. Mr. Swanson was introduced by Commonwealth's Attorney Thomas Hamlin. Mr. Swanson was given a great ovation. The first part of his address was devoted to the reminiscences of his youth, and the time, when a young man, he resided for years in the city of Danville.

He arraigned the Republican party in scathing terms. He spoke of the splendid administration of the State government since the Democrats came in power, and paid a high tribute to the services of Governor Montague.

Governor Montague arrived in the city this afternoon from Charlotte county, where he spoke to-day, and will cast his ballot on the election to-morrow at Stokesland. He was greeted by great applause, when he entered the municipal hall, and was presented to the audience after Mr. Swanson concluded by Chairman J. F. Rison, of the city Democratic party. The Governor's speech was devoted mainly to the conditions and progress of the State under Democratic reign, and was well received. At the conclusion of Governor Montague's address, Mayor Harry Wooding, on behalf of the ladies of the city, presented a bouquet of flowers to Mr. Swanson. Every indication points to a sweeping Democratic victory in the Fifth District to-morrow.
